

Guide for retailers, alcohol manufacturers, wholesalers, agency liquor stores, nonprofit/tax-exempt organizations, and the public.

A nonprofit or tax-exempt organization may hold a raffle* or auction of alcoholic beverages at fundraising events. Alcoholic beverages raffled or auctioned must be given by the organization to the raffle or auction winner sealed in their original packaging.

Events where the non-profit organization would also like to have the option to sell and serve alcohol not on a licensed premises must:

- Be catered by an on-premises alcoholic beverage licensee, or
- Apply for a special event permit

Alcohol may only be consumed on the premises at a catered event or special permit event. Taking alcohol home is not allowed.

Allowed:

Alcoholic beverages used for raffle or auction must be:

- Purchased by or donated to the organization from a licensed retailer (excluding a restaurant beer and wine licensed retailer).
- Purchased by the organization from an agency liquor store at not less than the posted price.
- Received by the organization as a donation at no cost to the organization from any other person except a licensed wholesaler or distributor.
- Purchased by the organization, that has been issued a special permit from ABCD, from a licensed wholesaler or distributor for not less than the ordinary price.

If held at an on-premises licensed business, an alcoholic beverage that is on a licensee's premises solely for a fundraising event under this section does not constitute a violation by the licensee of 16-3-301\(1\) or 16-6-303, MCA.

No more than four events per organization per calendar year are allowed at which alcoholic beverages are raffled or auctioned.

“Virtual” (Online) and In-Person Auctions:

You may auction alcohol and alcohol type items at your virtual event. For example, you may auction a gift card to a brewery for three growler fills, gift baskets with alcohol in them, etc.

Attendees receiving the items they have won in the auction or raffle:

- The items may be delivered.
 - The delivery driver must be at least 21 years of age as well as any individual receiving the item(s).
- The items may be picked up at the address of the “event,”
 - The individual picking up the item must be at least 21 years of age.

Not Allowed:

- Proceeds from the raffle or auction of alcoholic beverages going to anyone who provided the alcoholic beverages.
- Raffle tickets sold to any person under 21 years of age.
- Auction bids received from any person under 21 years of age.

* “Auction” means the sale of an item or items, which may include alcoholic beverages, whereby the item for sale is sold to the highest bidder at the bid price. An auctioned item or items may have a reserve price.

“Raffle” means an event in which a nonprofit or tax-exempt organization sells tickets, and each ticket gives the purchaser of the ticket the chance to win a prize, which may include alcoholic beverages, with the winner determined by a random drawing.

“Original packaging” means the sealed container in which a manufacturer packages its product for retail sale. It includes bottles, cans, kegs, and growlers, but does not include lines or piping carrying product from a manufacturer’s premises to a retailer’s premises.

All licensees must comply with all Montana alcoholic beverage laws and rules.
