Domestic Distillery License

What is a domestic distillery license?

How do I get one?

What can I do with it?
What is a domestic distillery license?

A domestic distillery is located in Montana and the license allows the licensee to legally import, manufacture, distill, rectify, blend, denature, and store spirits of an alcoholic content greater than 0.5 percent alcohol by volume for sale to the department or, in some cases, transport the liquor out of Montana for sale in another state. It may also allow some distilleries to provide samples of spirits it produces for consumption on their premises with or without charge.

Montana recognizes two types of distilleries. The term “distillery” means both a distillery and a microdistillery throughout the rest of this document:

1. Domestic Microdistillery: Distilleries that produce 200,000 proof gallons or less annually within the state of Montana.

2. Domestic Distillery: Distilleries that produce over 200,000 proof gallons annually within the state of Montana.

Any distillery licensed in the state may own, lease, maintain and operate a noncontiguous department-approved warehouse for the sole purpose of storing liquor.
The following definitions apply:

Distilled Spirits means alcoholic beverages that contain ethyl alcohol and generally are the result of distillation of fermented materials. Examples include whiskey, gin, vodka, cordials, liqueurs, and flavored brandies. Distilled spirits do not include alcoholic beverages that are defined as beer or wine by the Montana Alcoholic Beverage Code.

Alcoholic Beverage means a compound produced and sold for human consumption as a drink that contains more than 0.5 percent of alcohol by volume.

Where do I start?

A distillery license may be applied for directly from the ABCD and does not need to be purchased from an existing licensee unless you are buying the business and the distilled spirits inventory.

You may file your distillery license application electronically at https://tap.dor.mt.gov with the Department of Revenue (DOR) Alcoholic Beverage Control Division (ABCD).

What are the associated costs?

- One-time distillery license processing fee: $200.
- Annual distillery license: $600.
- One-time distillery storage warehouse processing fee: $100.
- Fingerprint card fee for each individual with 15 percent or more ownership interest in the business. Price subject to change.
What do I need to apply?

When applying for a distillery license, you must provide the following general information:

- A completed application for a distillery license.
- Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) Federal Basic Permit to manufacture distilled spirits.
- All distilled products in Montana must have label approvals through ABCD and TTB. Certificate of label approvals (COLA) or exemption from the TTB for each brand and variety of distilled spirits to be manufactured. TTB label approvals will not delay the processing of your application; however, your products may not be sold or distributed in Montana without label approvals. More information regarding TTB COLA available at www.TTB.gov.
- A completed ABCD authorization to disclose tax information form for each individual with ownership over 15 percent and each entity for the purchaser of the license and the seller of the license, if applicable. The form is available at MTRRevenue.gov.
- A floor plan that includes the business name, physical address, storage area, drive through window, sample room (if applicable), manufacturing area, external dimensions, entryways, and any patio or deck area. Do not send in the original blueprints, only an 8½-by-11-inch copy of the floor plan.
When applying for a distillery license, you must provide the following financial information showing the “intent to purchase” the alcoholic beverage license, inventory, and/or building, if applicable:

Note: You may not exchange funds for the alcohol beverage license beyond earnest money equal to 5 percent of the license price without ABCD approval.

- If you used funds other than from a loan you must provide the last six months of bank statements from the bank account you are using to pay for the alcoholic beverage license, building, and/or start-up operating funds for the business.
- Other sources of funding. You must file the non-institutional loan (NIL) form with the application if any lenders or other sources of financing are not state or federally regulated financial institutions, including gifting statements. The form is available at MTRevenue.gov.
  - Authorization for examination and release of information for each NIL.
  - Personal criminal history statement form for each NIL. The form is available at MTRevenue.gov.
  - Two fingerprint cards and fees for each NIL.

- Personal criminal history statement form for each location manager. The form is available at MTRevenue.gov.
- Two fingerprint cards and fees for each location manager.

What are the steps in the application process?

- The application process takes on average 90 days and begins when DOR receives a complete application package and all supporting documents.
- Application is reviewed by the DOR ABCD.
- ABCD sends a letter to the applicant requesting any additional documents needed.
- ABCD notifies local agencies with jurisdiction over the area (law enforcement, building department, fire department, health department, etc.) of the application in process. They have 14 days to advise the department if the applicant and the premises meet all laws and ordinances.
Prior to final approval of any new location, it is the responsibility of the applicant to contact local building, health, and fire code officials to schedule inspections. ABCD will not approve an application until:

- Local officials have given notice that the licensed premises meet their requirements.
- DOJ has conducted a background check of the applicant(s) and verified the location meets suitability requirements.

After the completion of the audit and investigation, ABCD conducts a final review of the application. If necessary, any additional documents will be requested.

Note: The final step to selling your distilled spirits in the state will be to complete a standard quotation and specification form for each of your products.

The department will use the information you supply on the standard quotation and specification form to determine the posted price of each product, which includes a markup, excise tax and license tax. The Liquor Distribution Bureau must also approve your product packaging before you may sell your product in Montana.

You may get the standard quotation and specification form by calling the Liquor Distribution Bureau at (406) 444-6900 or online at MTR Revenue.gov.

You must notify the Liquor Distribution Bureau of the percentage of alcohol in each proof gallon of the product distilled at your distillery. If product you distilled is mixed with a purchased in bulk spirit, we must know the percentage of each that is used to make your final product.
What taxes does a distillery pay?

Microdistilleries pay the excise and license tax on sales out of their sample room. The tax rate is a total of 5 percent of the retail selling price per bottle. Microdistilleries are required to electronically file their tax return on or before the 15th day of each month for liquor sold during the previous month.

A distillery for which the tax is less than $10 a month from the sale of samples is not required to file a return or pay the tax for that month.

If a distillery did not file a return for a month, generally that period would be estimated and assessed. The distillery would then have the opportunity to provide information showing their tax liability was under $10 for the month.

If a distillery sells their product through the state liquor warehouse, then the agency liquor store pays the excise and license tax.

If you need help filing any of these forms, call the ABCD Liquor Auditor at (406) 444-2909.
